

Date: November 12, 2013

To: Pete Boyce
City Council
Planning Commission

From: Rose Johnson

Re: Public Meetings: Inappropriate comments

Please consider adding the following language to the City Council Handbook:

City council, planning commission members and city staff shall display the utmost courtesy to each other and to the public appearing at public meetings. The city councilors, commissioners and staff shall refrain from rude abusive and derogatory remarks or those that reflect on a person's citizen's intelligence or integrity.