City of Gladstone Annual Consumer Confidence Report

The City of Gladstone provided its customers with access to safe, clean drinking water in 2013 and is continuing to work to meet or exceed all state and federal requirements. Water is the one commodity we cannot live without and the City of Gladstone takes great pride in safeguarding this valuable resource. Please stay informed on the quality of your drinking water by reading this report.

Gladstone's Drinking Water Source

The City of Gladstone receives its water from the North Clackamas County Water Commission (NCCWC). The water supply is primarily from the Clackamas River which originates from the Clackamas River Water Basin. Water is treated at NCWCC facilities. First, water is filtered to remove particulates and then treated with chloramines. This treatment process starts with chlorine to disinfect the water. Next, ammonia is added to ensure disinfection remains adequate throughout the distribution system. Chloramines also lessen the possibility of disinfection by-products forming in the distribution system. Additionally, the water is adjusted for corrosion control.

Your drinking water is tested frequently for a variety of parameters. The City of Gladstone collects samples in the distribution system according to EPA requirements and the NCWCC is responsible for all other sampling. If any of these test results exceed the safe levels established by the EPA, the City of Gladstone would issue the required public notifications.

Cross Connection Control & Backflow Prevention

The City of Gladstone ensures the quality of your drinking water by maintaining a Cross Connection Control Program (CCCP). Cross connections are links between drinking water piping and any plumbing or equipment through which it may be possible for used water or other substances to enter (or "backflow") into the public water supply. These potentially hazardous connections compromise the quality of your drinking water, but can be prevented. Gladstone's CCCP helps prevent backflow and cross connections by identifying and eliminating unsafe situations or practices; however, a large part of the success of the CCCP depends on the cooperation of the City's property owners.

Each individual property owner is responsible for maintaining their plumbing system according to the plumbing code and other state regulations. This includes preventing or eliminating cross connections. If you have a lawn irrigation system, automatic pool filler, or use a hose to fill any sort of vessel, you have a cross connection and should be taking measures to prevent backflow. Many of these household cross connections require the installation of mechanical units called backflow prevention assemblies. These units, when properly installed, tested, and maintained, prevent used water or substances from flowing backward.

Before installing a backflow prevention assembly, please contact Gladstone Public Works at (503) 656-7957 for assistance.

Important Health Information

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least trace amounts of some "contaminants". The presence of these do not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons, such as persons undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. Environmental Protection Agency/Centers for Disease Control (EPA/CDC) guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800) 426-4791.

Conservation Tips for Summer & Beyond

- We're more likely to notice leaky faucets indoors, but don't forget to check outdoor faucets, pipes, and hoses for leaks.
- Use a broom instead of a hose to clean your driveway or sidewalk.
- Wash your car and/or bathe your pets on the grass in an area in need of water. Use a hose nozzle and turn off the water while you wash.
- Weed your lawn and garden regularly. Weeds compete with other plants for nutrients, light, and water.
- While fertilizers promote plant growth, they also increase water consumption. Apply the minimum amount of fertilizer needed.
- For hanging baskets, planters and pots, place ice cubes under the moss or dirt to give your plants a drink of water and help eliminate water overflow.
- Composting instead of using the garbage disposal will save gallons of water every time. Using compost when you plant also adds water-holding organic matter to the soil.
- Check your sprinkler system frequently and adjust sprinklers so only your lawn is watered and not the house, sidewalk, or street. Keep sprinkler heads in good shape.

Water Quality Data Table for 2013

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) regulates the frequency of sampling for various contaminants. The data presented in this table is from testing conducted in 2013. The table may also include any other results within the last five years for analyses that were not required in the year 2013.

Contaminant (Unit)	MCL	MCLG	Result or Range low - high	Sample Date	Typical Source	Violation
Sampled at source water from NCCWC * cannot exceed 5 NTU twice in 12 months
Turbidity (NTU)	*	n/a	0.02 - 0.04	Daily 2013	Soil runoff	No
Inorganic Contaminants - Sampled at source water from NCCWC
Nitrate [measured as Nitrogen] (ppm)	10	10	.7	Feb 2013	Runoff from fertilizer use; Leaching from septic tanks; Erosion of natural deposits	No
Disinfection By-Products - Sampled in the Gladstone water distribution system
TTHM (Total Trihalomethanes) (ppb)	80	n/a	ND - 58.8	Quarterly 2013	By-product of drinking water disinfection	No
HAA5 (Total Haloacetic Acid) (ppb)	60	n/a	ND - 37.2	Quarterly 2013	By-product of drinking water disinfection	No
Inorganic Contaminants - Sampled in the Gladstone water distribution system
Lead	Goal	AL	90th percentile		Typical Source	Violation
Lead (ppb) 30 sites sampled at consumer taps; 1 exceeded AL	0	15	4.34	Aug & Sep 2011	Corrosion of household plumbing; Erosion of natural deposits	No

The City of Gladstone had no sampling or monitoring violations in 2013.

* Not all contaminants have Maximum Contaminant Levels (MCLs) or Goals (MCLGs). Some have Treatment Techniques (TT) levels, Action Levels (AL), Maximum Residual Disinfectant Levels (MRDLs) or Goals (MRDLGs).

TTHM and HAA5 are potential carcinogens. If they exceed the MCL, they may cause liver, spleen, kidney and central nervous system problems. Gladstone is required to take four samples in each quarter of 2013.

TERMS & ABBREVIATIONS

AL: Action Level: Concentration of a contaminant, when exceeded, triggers treatment for the water system to follow.

MCLG: Maximum Contaminant Level Goal: The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

MCL: Maximum Contaminant Level: The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.

n/a: Not Applicable.

NCCWC: North Clackamas County Water Commission.

ND: Not Detected: Laboratory analysis indicates that the constituent is not present or not detectable.

NTU: Nephelometric Turbidity Unit: The measure of turbidity or cloudiness of the water. Turbidity has no health effects. It is monitored, however, because it can interfere with disinfection and provide a medium for microbial growth.

ppb: Parts per billion or micrograms per liter. For example, 1 ppb is one second out of 32 years; one penny in $10,000,000.

ppm: Parts per million or milligrams per liter. For example, 1 ppm is one second out of 12 days; one penny in $10,000.

Range: The lowest amount of a contaminant detected and the highest amount detected during a sample period.

Result: Refers to the highest level detected, unless otherwise indicated.

90th percentile: Compliance is determined by 90% of the samples taken having lead levels less than or equal to the Action Level (AL) of 15 ppb.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION OPPORTUNITY—The City of Gladstone invites you to attend City Council meetings on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM in the Council Chambers of City Hall.

The Effect of Lead in Drinking Water

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing.

The City of Gladstone is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. Whenever your water has been sitting in the pipes for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking.

If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800) 426-4791 or online at www.epa.gov/safewater/lead.

Gladstone Police Department (GPD) Updates

*Jeff Jolley Promoted to Lieutenant—Sgt Jolley was promoted on June 1st and now is 2nd in command. Lt. Jolley has been selected to attend the 259th session of the FBI National Academy held at the FBI Academy in Virginia. This is an intensive 10 week executive development course. Less than 1% of police officers are selected for and graduate from the National Academy. Chief Pryde is a graduate of the 205th session of the national Academy. Please join us in congratulating Jeff on his promotion and selection for the National Academy.

*National Night Out Against Crime—August 5th—Join GPD in being united against crime. Last year there were well over a dozen neighborhoods gathered to get acquainted and meet with police officers and city officials on public safety issues. The Gladstone Fire Dept will visit neighborhoods as well. There is no cost to sign up. To register your neighborhood or ask questions, contact Maria Aikin at 503-557-2798 or email, aikin@ci.gladstone.or.us. The final organizational meeting will be July 8th at 6:15 pm in the City Hall conference room. It is the partnership between Gladstone residents and the GPD that helps prevent crime.

*Gladstone Crime Statistics on City Website—If you're interested in learning more about crime in Gladstone, monthly crime statistics are posted on the City's website, www.ci.gladstone.or.us. You will find information on calls for service, arrests and other items as well.

*Welcome Officer Lee Gilliam—Officer Gilliam is our newest police officer and comes to us with extensive public safety experience. He has served in the military and in a variety of civilian law enforcement functions. Lee and his family are excited to be a part of GPD's team—Welcome Lee!

*Gladstone Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) Being Updated—We are updating our 2005 EOP. This plan identifies roles and responsibilities when the City experiences a major storm, flood, earthquake or other emergency. Once our draft is ready, it will be forwarded to City Council for review and approval.

City Council Elections

The City Council is an elected policy decision making body for the City of Gladstone. The Council serves with an equal number of "lay members" on the Budget Committee and hears land use appeals of decisions made by the Planning Commission. Council members also serve as liaisons on advisory boards and commissions. Four year terms of Mayor and City Council positions #1, #3 & #5, held by Wade Byers, vacant, Kari Martinez and Hal Busch respectively, will expire December 31, 2014. If you are interested in being a candidate, you must be a registered voter and have resided in city for twelve months immediately preceding the election on November 4, 2014. Information and instructions are on the City website, www.ci.gladstone.or.us. A nomination petition or declaration of candidacy will be filed not sooner than 120 days nor later than 70 days before the date of the election. For information, call 503-557-2766, email Morishita@ci.gladstone.or.us or visit the city's website, www.ci.gladstone.or.us.

City Council Vacancy

At its meeting on May 27th, the City Council regretfully accepted the resignation of Ray Jaren who held City Council Position #1. Position #1's term expires 12-31-14 and is open for applicants to run in the November General Election. In the interim, the Council is requesting interested applicants to apply for an appointment to the short-term vacancy. The City Council will consider applications for the short-term appointment (August-December 2014) at the August 12th meeting. To obtain an application for short-term appointment visit the city's website at www.ci.gladstone.or.us, email Morishita@ci.gladstone.or.us, call 503-557-2766 or stop by City Hall, Monday-Friday, 8am to 5pm. Applications must be returned to City Hall by 5pm on August 6, 2014.

2014 Gladstone Cultural Festival

2014 Gladstone Cultural Festival hosted by the Gladstone-Oak Grove Rotary is a place where a community of vendors, artists, entertainers and participants emerge and come alive August 1-3, 2014.
