Business License Fees (Non-Refundat	ole)
The annual license fee is for each calendar year	January thro	ough December. A fee not paid within 30 days of its due date is delinquent.
If an application for a business license is made	e within the f	first six months of the calendar year, the person must pay the full license fee. If an application is made during the last six months of	the calendar	year, the person is only responsible for paying one-half of the annual license fees for the remainder of the year. Fees are not refundab	le.
Any new business that desires to conduct bu	siness within	n the city must apply at any time during the calendar year and prior to beginning operations. A license fee may be prorated as prov	ided in Sectio	on 5.04.040 (3). Any existing business must reapply annually to renew its license.
• Each branch or establishment shall be consider	ed a separate	business and subject to a license.
All businesses operating within the City of Glad	stone must c	omply with the City's building, zoning, fire and police safety requirements.
All businesses must pay the "Business License F	ee" plus the	employee fee and/or rental unit fee.
"Employee Fee" is based on the number of emp	loyees over 3	B full-time equivalent (120 hours a week) employees. (ex. 1 employee working 15 hours weekly plus 1 employee working 25 hours weekly	equal 1 full t	time employee).
• * All NEW Businesses being operated out of	a home resid	dence are required to pay the regular Business License Fee AND the one time
Home Occupation Business Fee (for operating a b	usiness out o	of a residence).
 Number of Rental Units is defined as any spa	ace being use	d to generate rental income.
